

DOANE WOMEN BACK-TO-BACK SOCCER CHAMPS

Three seniors lead youthful Lady Spartans to Penn-Jersey League title

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Burlington City, NJ - October 27, 2011

The 2011 Penn-Jersey Women's Soccer Championship game was in many ways a replay of the 2010 title match. Same field. Same rivals. Same result.

But the way Doane Academy's women's soccer team defeated Life Center Academy, 3-2, could not have been more different. The 2010 squad was upperclassmen heavy, with seven seniors in the starting lineup.

Coach Mary Ann Bobroski's 2012 team featured three seniors who led a squad of mostly first-years and sophomores. Sweeper Mary Brodowski '12 (Eastampton) repelled almost every incursion into Doane territory despite losing two fullbacks to injuries during the course of the hard fought game between the rival schools. Forward Ziena Ngatchou '12 (Burlington Twp.) scored the go-ahead goal in the second-half and striker Elena Zangerle '12 (Marlton) added an insurance tally (her second on the day) at 80:00 that ultimately preserved the repeat championship for Doane.

First-year Kelsey Doell '15 (Langhorne, PA) helped the seniors go out champions with two point-blank saves in the second half. The only blemishes on her record for the day were two perfect, curving corner kicks.

Though the hardware is in hand, the Lady Spartans' season is not over. The team will compete in its first-ever NJSIAA, Non-Public B playoff match at Timothy Christian in Piscataway, NJ on Tuesday, 1:30 p.m.
